The Daily Journal has much the argest circulation in the city and double the circulation in the country of any nently worthy of serious consideration: other daily paper printed in Louisville; and the Weekly Journal has much more than double the circulation of all the other weekly papers in Louisville put together.

THE FACILITY OF THE RICHMOND ENQ REE.-The Richmond Enquirer is certainly a miracle of facility. It is as facile as the swiftest weather-cock that ever courted the breeze upon a cabin-top; and, with a clamorons show so to every description of manufacturing, &c., at but a slight additional expense. boldness, it is not a whit more independent. It is the mere shuttlecock and harlequin of an t unscrupulous political clique.

The small portion of the public that cares for the Richmond Enquirer at all can hardly have for the want of it by comparison with other forgotten how ridiculously it blew bot and cold cities. upon the question of Mr. Bachanan's nomination and the Squatter Sovereignty ism to which he gratuitously pledged himself in his letter of acceptance. We dwelt in fitting terms upon this disgraceful exhibition at the time. Well, the rapidity with which the Enquirer veered about upon the point of Mr. Buchanan's nomination is fully equalled by that with which it has revolved upon the pivot of his election. No sooner was his election established than the Enquirer proceeded to glorify the result in its most unstanted and grandiloquent manner. Its joy unstanted and grandiloquent manner. A few days, however, brought the more guarded gratulations of the New Orleans Delta and the Charleston Mercury, with a special reproof to the Enquirer for its unmeasured exultation over so qualified a triumph. "In the first moment of cool reflection," said the Mercury, "all Sonthern men must feel that we have barely escaped an issue of Destruction or Disunion; and that this issue is merely put off, and not decided, by the election of Mr. Buchanan." The Enquirer meekly accepted the rebuke, and retracting its wild words of rejoicing, at once took up the cut bat had been thrust upon it and hastened to discourse most intensely upon the incompleteness of Mr. Buchanan's victory and the darkness and terror of the fate from which it was only a respite. It seemed at a loss for language ominous enough to express its sense of language ominous enough to express its sense of The census tables should include even mor the horrid abyss over which the Union was than is mentioned in the message of the Mayhanging by the slender thread of Democratic or. Chaplains to Congress.—We are informed that a memorial is on foot among some of the clergymen of Washing on to profer their services in the place of the chaplains usually appointed by Congress. This profer is based on the fact that last winter the clergymen of Washingfon were invited to alternate in opening the House before its organization, and on the fact that the suggestion of a permanent arrangement of this kind was then made, and only aboutdoned from the consideration that no expression of the willingness of the clergy this only abaudoned from the consideration that represents of the withingness of the clergy the to officiate had been given. We understartual clergymen of seven differ int denomination have already given their names to this proposition.— Val. Intel.
